

Memorial University of Newfoundland/Grenfell Campus - Grenfell is a small (1300 student) liberal arts and science campus of Memorial University of Newfoundland. Our emphasis is on a small-class environment and teaching excellence in distinctive single, multi- and interdisciplinary programs with four-year Bachelor's degrees in Arts, Fine Arts, Science, and Nursing. We are currently working to increase enrolments, build new degree programs, acquire new infrastructure and enhance our research profile and activities. We are seeking applications for an 8.5 month position in French beginning August 15, 2011 and ending April 30, 2012. Candidates must have demonstrated competence and experience in, as well as an enthusiasm for, teaching French as a second language at the introductory and intermediate undergraduate levels, including phonetics. The candidate must be prepared to teach in an English-speaking environment. The successful candidate will have completed a graduate degree in French or second language pedagogy. Ideally, the candidate will have completed or be near completion of a Ph.D. in French. All appointments are subject to budgetary approval. Salary will reflect qualifications and experience in accordance with the Collective Agreement governing faculty at Memorial University of Newfoundland. Applications will be accepted until February 18, 2011. A letter of application (which includes information on areas of research interest and activity) along with a curriculum vitae, a teaching dossier and the names and addresses of three references should be sent in electronic and/or hard copy form to: The Vice-Principal, Grenfell Campus, Memorial University of Newfoundland, Corner Brook, NL, A2H 6P9; Telephone: (709) 637-6231; Fax: (709) 637-6218; or email vice-principal@swgc.ca. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Memorial University is committed to employment equity and encourages applications from qualified women and men, visible minorities, aboriginal people and persons with disabilities. [21009]
